Man of Moline Burned When Thrown Into Boiling Water While Slaughtering.

In the scuffle, Mr. Hora was killed the hog and threw him into the water. Chief Boman of Moline, a co-worker of Hora, pulled the suffering man from the vat. Dr. A. E. Wigmore of Moline was called. BROCCERY BUSINESS IN BLUFF DISTRICT CHANGES HANDS

H. F. and Peter Van Nieuwenhuyse, better known to friends as Newhouse, announce the purchase of the grocery business of Miss Margaret Puma, 1203 Thirtieth street. The brothers are well known in Rock Island and Moline. H. F. was assistant manager of the Woolworth store in Moline and for the last two years Peter has conducted a meat market in East Moline. Previous to that, Peter was a motorman in the employ of the Tri-City Railway company. The brothers intend to make their new enterprise one of the finest of its kind in the bluff district. It is their avowed intention of working to keep down rising costs by selling at small profits in anticipation of quick turnovers. They took charge of the store Monday.

REMEMBRANCE TO OLD GANG SENT BY BOB WILKINSON

K. C. "Doc" Wilkerson, who for 35 years was clerk at the Harper house, wishes to be remembered to all of the old gang, according to a letter received by K. C. Kander, former city editor of The Argus. Bob now lives at Bloomington and writes as follows:

"I wish you would kindly have the Argus send me another year and I will send a check for the amount of the box of cigars. I think the members of the old gang and commandery certainly did themselves proud the way they entertained the visiting Sir Knights. They have made a reputation for themselves for courtesy and hospitality that might be envied by any community. I want to thank you for your courtesy. Rock Island will long be remembered by all who attended that conclave.

"Kindly remember me to all of our friends. With best wishes to you and yours and always a boost for the old town."

We have our Exchange Department that enables us to allow you a good, liberal price for your used heater.
